CHAPTER XXXI and XXXII The Middle Passage and Dark Places

1. Using the find command, type Legree. According to the first match (which is at the end of chapter 30), what kind of plantation does Simon Legree own and on what river does the plantation stand?
2. After "...every eye was now directed to the greenish-gray eye of Simon," paraphrase what he told his new group of slaves.
3. According to Legree, what "...comes cheaper in the end"?
4. Explain the viewpoint of the "...young man[s] opinion [that]...it is you considerate, humane men, that are responsible for all the brutality and outrage wrought by these wretches" [such as Simon Legree].
5. Why does the author name Chapter XXXI "The Middle Passage"? (see: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Middle\_Passage )
6. Why does the author name Chapter XXXII "Dark Places"? (paraphrase the long paragraph beginning with: " It was late in the evening..."
