Themes in APUSH

Themes in United States History:¹ These themes focus student understanding of major historical issues and developments, helping students to recognize broad trends and processes that have emerged over centuries in what has become the United States.

Theme 1: American and National Identity (NAT): This theme focuses on the formation of both American national identity and group identities in U.S. history.

Overarching questions: How and why have debates over American national identity changed over time? How have gender, class, ethnic, religious, regional, and other group identities changed in different eras?

Theme 2: Politics and Power (POL): This theme focuses on how different social and political groups have influenced society and government in the United States, as well as how political beliefs and institutions have changed over time.

Overarching questions: How and why have different political and social groups competed for influence over society and government in what would become the United States? How have Americans agreed on or argued over the values that guide the political system as well as who is a part of the political process?

Theme 3: Work, Exchange, and Technology (WXT): This theme focuses on the factors behind the development of systems of economic exchange, particularly the role of technology, economic markets, and government.

Overarching questions: How have changes in markets, transportation, and technology affected American society from colonial times to the present day? Why have different labor systems developed in British North America and the United States, and how have they affected U.S. society? How have debates over economic values and the role of government in the U.S. economy affected politics, society, the economy, and the environment?

Theme 4: Culture and Society (CUL): This theme focuses on the roles that ideas, beliefs, social mores, and creative expression have played in shaping the United States, as well as how various identities, cultures, and values have been preserved or changed in different contexts of U.S. history.

Overarching questions: How and why have moral, philosophical, and cultural values changed in what would become the United States? How and why have changes in moral, philosophical, and cultural values affected U.S. history?

Theme 5: Migration and Settlement (MIG): This theme focuses on why and how the various people who moved to, from, and within the United States adapted to their new social and physical environments.

Overarching questions: Why have people migrated to, from, and within North America? How have changes in migration and population patterns affected American life?

Theme 6: Geography and the Environment (GEO): This theme focuses on the role of geography and both the natural and human-made environments on social and political developments in what would become the United States.

Overarching questions: How did interactions with the natural environment shape the institutions and values of various groups living on the North American continent?

Theme 7. America in the World (WOR): This theme focuses on the interactions between nations that affected North American history in the colonial period and on the influence of the United States on world affairs.

Overarching questions: How have events in North America and the United States related to contemporary developments in the rest of the world? How have different factors influenced U.S. military, diplomatic, and economic involvement in international affairs and foreign conflicts, both in North America and overseas? How did economic and demographic changes affect the environment and lead to debates over use and control of the environment and natural resources?
