

Map 18.1 Turkish empires and their neighbors, ca. 1210 C.E. After about 1000 C.E., nomadic Turkish peoples conquered and ruled settled agricultural societies in several regions of Eurasia and north Africa. How were Turkish peoples able to venture so far from their central Asian homeland?