Question description	This question presents students with 5 historical sources, 1 of which will be a non-text-based source. This question assesses students' ability to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Respond to the prompt with a historically defensible thesis or claim that establishes a line of reasoning. • Describe a broader historical context relevant to the prompt. • Support an argument in response to the prompt using at least 4 documents. • Use at least 2 additional pieces of specific historical evidence (beyond that found in the documents) relevant to an argument about the prompt. • For at least 2 documents, explain how or why the document's point of view, purpose, historical situation, and/or audience is relevant to an argument. • Use evidence to corroborate, qualify, or modify an argument that addresses the prompt.
Corresponding free-response question (FRQ) type in the course exam description binder	Modified Document-Based Question (DBQ). The prompt for the 2020 modified DBQ may be derived from any of Units 3–7, and will include 5 documents (instead of 7). The rubric will be lightly modified to match the reduced number of documents, awarding 1 point for using 2 documents and an additional point for using 4 documents. An additional point will be awarded for effectively incorporating a second piece of outside knowledge into the argument. Students can earn up to 2 points for sourcing (1 point for each document).
