

ADVANCED	YES	NO	POINTS
Course heading is included (1 pt)			/ 1
Movie is correctly cited (Title. Company. Year.) (1 pt)			/ 1
Analysis includes a brief summary of the movie that includes main character or supporting character, plot, setting, and time period (century) in which the movie takes place. (4 pts)			/ 4
Analysis includes description of the scene that has been chosen to present to the class. (1 pt)			/ 1
Analysis explains why the scene is important: it explains the plot; describes the main character; or brings the plot to its conclusion. (4 pts)			/ 4
Analysis begins with historical statement that indicates whether movie is based on history or fiction (1 pt)			/ 1
Analysis includes a discussion about historical accuracy of the movie (this requires research). (2 pts)			/ 2
Analysis explains that the movie is fictional and states where the story comes from: a book, a play, a short story, or a screen play and includes in what way the movie is different than the book, play, or short story on which it is based (this requires research) (4 pts)			/ 4
			/ 4
Analysis includes at least 3 of the ten characteristics of the United States by integrating the characteristics into the analysis rather than simply listing characteristics that are in the movie (6 pts)			/ 6
Analysis includes in what ways the movie tells us about the present by explaining how the movie's relevance can be seen in extant cultural, religious, political, social, economic, educational, environmental, scientific, technological, or militaristic practices. (6 pts)			/ 6
			TOTAL / 34